

If Walls Could Worship

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION GUIDE

A Small Thank You!

Thank you for reading If Walls Could Worship.

Whether you read these pages during a quiet morning, a difficult season, or somewhere in between, I am grateful you spent your time here. As you work through these discussion questions, I hope they spark meaningful conversations, deeper reflection, and a renewed awareness that worship is not confined to a building or a Sunday morning. It is a daily response to the God who is present in every room, every season, and every part of our story.

OPENING REFLECTION

Before we begin, remember that this book is an invitation to look for God in places we might normally overlook. Whether your days feel peaceful or chaotic, extraordinary or ordinary, God is present and at work. Take a moment to reflect on the past week.

If your walls could tell the story of this past week, what would they say about your faith, your struggles, and God's presence in your life? Share your thoughts with the group.

CHAPTER 1: THE SANCTUARY WALL

Worship begins with recognizing God's presence. While church buildings can help us focus on Him, worship was never meant to stay within their walls.

- How did this chapter challenge your understanding of worship?
- Have you ever mistaken religious activity for genuine worship? What was the difference?
- What makes a place feel holy?
- How can you carry the posture of worship into your daily life this week?

Key Verse: "The Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth be silent before him." - Habakkuk 2:20

CHAPTER 2: THE CHURCH PEW

God never intended us to walk alone. The church is a place where believers gather to worship, encourage one another, and grow together in faith.

- How has the Christian community shaped who you are today?
- What keeps you from being fully known within the body of Christ?
- How might God be calling you to contribute rather than simply consume within your church community?

Key Verse: "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds..." - Hebrews 10:24-25

CHAPTER 3: THE MOTHER'S ROOM

Many of the most sacred acts of worship happen in hidden places. God sees every act of service, even when no one else does.

- Where do you feel unseen, overlooked, or underappreciated in this season?
- Why is it often harder to be faithful in hidden places than visible ones?
- What would change if you truly believed God sees every act of obedience?

Key Verse: "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters."

Colossians 3:23

CHAPTER 4: THE KITCHEN TABLE

Some of life's most meaningful ministry happens through simple conversations and shared meals. Hospitality creates space for people to experience God's love.

- How do busyness, insecurity, or perfectionism affect your willingness to welcome others?
- When have you experienced God's presence through simple fellowship?
- What might sacrificial hospitality look like in your current season?

Key Verse: "Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality." - Romans 12:13

CHAPTER 5: THE LIVING ROOM COUCH

Faith is not only expressed in public worship but also in our homes and relationships. The way we love those closest to us reveals what we truly value.

- What values are being modeled most clearly in your home right now?
- How do your private habits support or contradict your public faith?
- If someone observed your household for a week, what would they conclude you worship most?

Key Verse: "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." - Joshua 24:15

CHAPTER 6: THE CAR

Even the ordinary moments between destinations can become opportunities to meet with God. Worship is not limited by location when our hearts remain connected to Him.

- What do your thoughts naturally drift toward when your mind is unoccupied?
- How do interruptions reveal what is happening in your heart?
- What spiritual habit can you practice during your commute or daily routines this week?

Key Verse: "The Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore." - Psalm 121:8

CHAPTER 7: THE LAUNDRY PILE

The routines we often overlook may be some of God's greatest tools for shaping our character. Faithfulness in small things is never wasted.

- Which responsibilities feel thankless or repetitive right now?
- Why do we often underestimate the spiritual significance of ordinary faithfulness?
- How might God be using repetition to form Christlike character in you?

Key Verse: "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up." - Galatians 6:9

CHAPTER 8: THE PILLOW

When the day ends and our thoughts grow quiet, God invites us to exchange anxiety for trust. Rest becomes an act of worship when we place our burdens in His hands.

- What concerns are competing for your trust?
- What do your worries reveal about your deepest fears?
- What would it look like to actively surrender those fears to God this week?

Key Verse: "In peace I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety." - Psalm 4:8

CHAPTER 9: THE BACK PORCH

God often speaks in moments of stillness. Slowing down allows us to recognize His presence and remember His faithfulness.

- Why do silence and stillness often feel uncomfortable?
- What distractions most frequently pull your attention away from God?
- How can you create intentional space to listen rather than simply speak?

Key Verse: "Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality." - Romans 12:13

CHAPTER 10: THE MIRROR

Our identity is not determined by our failures, accomplishments, or the opinions of others. We are defined by what God says is true about us.

- What messages from culture, past experiences, or personal failures most influence how you see yourself?
- Which truth about your identity in Christ is hardest for you to believe?
- How would your decisions change if you lived from God's view of you instead of your own?

Key Verse: *"I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well."
- Psalm 139:14*

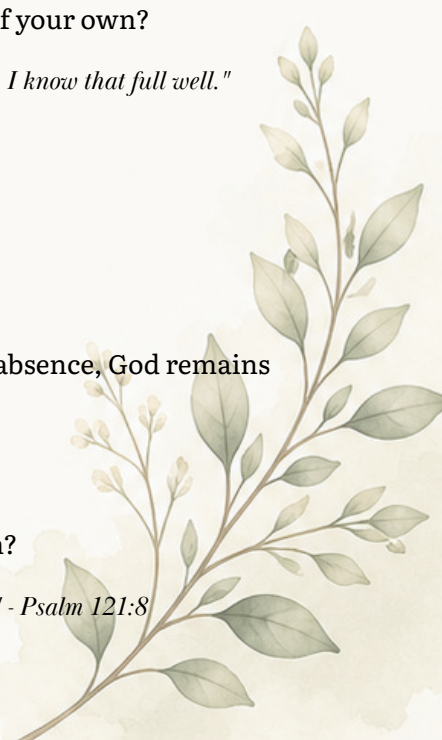

CHAPTER 11: THE EMPTY CHAIR

Loss, grief, and disappointment are part of every human story. Even in seasons of absence, God remains near to the brokenhearted.

- How has grief, loss, or disappointment shaped your relationship with God?
- What have you learned about God's character through suffering?
- Is there an area of hurt you are still carrying alone rather than bringing to Him?

Key Verse: "The Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore." - Psalm 121:8

CHAPTER 12: THE WAITING

Waiting often reveals what we believe about God's timing and faithfulness. Worship continues even when prayers remain unanswered.

- What are you currently waiting for God to do?
- How has waiting exposed areas of fear, control, or impatience in your life?
- What might faithfulness look like if God's answer takes longer than you expect?

Key Verse: "But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles..." - Isaiah 40:31

CHAPTER 13: THE JOURNAL PAGES

Looking back helps us recognize God's hand in our story. Remembering His faithfulness strengthens our faith for whatever lies ahead.

- Why is remembering God's faithfulness essential to spiritual growth?
- Which moments in your story have most clearly revealed God's hand?
- How could sharing your testimony encourage someone else right now?

Key Verse: "I will remember the deeds of the Lord; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago." - Psalm 77:11

CHAPTER 14: THE OPEN DOOR

God often calls us to step forward before we feel fully prepared. Obedience begins with trusting Him enough to walk through the doors He opens.

- What opportunity, calling, or next step do you sense God placing before you?
- What fears make obedience difficult?
- What would wholehearted trust require from you in this season?

Key Verse: "See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut." - Revelation 3:8

CLOSING PRAYER: A PRAYER FOR MY READERS

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for every person reading these pages and for every group gathering around this book. Thank You for meeting us not only in sanctuaries and church pews, but also in kitchens, living rooms, cars, laundry rooms, and all the ordinary places where life unfolds.

I pray that each reader would become increasingly aware of Your presence in their everyday life. Open their eyes to see You in the places they may have overlooked. Meet them around their kitchen tables, in their living rooms, in their cars, in seasons of waiting, and in the quiet moments no one else sees.

As they read and discuss these chapters, draw them closer to Jesus. Transform what needs to be transformed. Heal what needs to be healed. Strengthen what needs to be strengthened. And remind them that You are still working in their story. May they leave these pages with a greater awareness of Your goodness, a deeper trust in Your faithfulness, and a renewed desire to follow You wherever You lead.
